

The Cunard Centre
Thursday, July 12th

11:00 PM Rasta Gumbo

Since its inception in 1995 Rasta Gumbo has been playing to highly receptive audiences throughout Nova Scotia. With a mix of R&B and Reggae Classics the band appeals to a wide variety of tastes. Add some funk, soul and zydeco to the mix and you get a band that is versatile as well as energetic. Rasta Gumbo covers material from James Brown to Van Morrison and Bob Marley to Carlos Santana. When you add this strong line up of cover material to their original music, you get a show that is highly entertaining and most importantly fun!

Rasta Gumbo consists of Bruce Vickery, vocals and percussion, Stuart MacLean, guitar and vocals, Andru Lordly, sax and vocals, Brian Bourne, bass and vocals, Ross Billard, keyboards and Tom Roach on drums.

This fun energetic band with their authentic R & B, Soul and Reggae music have been entertaining crowds throughout Nova Scotia for over ten years and show no signs of letting up. They have bookings well into 2008 and are a sure thing to liven up any room with their infectious stage presence and high energy dance music.

For further information contact: Bruce Vickery 902 826-2995 bvickery@eastlink.ca